

Caliber Selects Coinbase Prime to Power Trading and Custody for LINK Treasury

September 23, 2025 11:03 AM EDT

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. and SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Caliber (NASDAQ: CWD), a diversified real estate and digital asset management platform, today announced it has selected Coinbase Prime as its institutional platform for trading and custody in support of Caliber's Digital Asset Treasury (DAT) Strategy.

Coinbase, through its Prime offering, is providing Caliber with access to deep liquidity and institutional-grade custody, using the same infrastructure trusted by some of the world's largest financial institutions.

"As an infrastructure investor in private equity real estate, Caliber is extending that same philosophy into digital assets," said Chris Loeffler, Chief Executive Officer of Caliber. "We are proud to align with Coinbase as we scale our digital asset treasury, bringing together two forms of critical infrastructure — real estate and blockchain — for the benefit of our shareholders."

Caliber is the first Nasdaq-listed company to publicly adopt a treasury reserve policy centered on Chainlink's Token, LINK. The Company's strategy calls for disciplined accumulation of LINK over time, long-term holding and yield generation. By doing so, Caliber provides its shareholders with transparent, mark-to-market exposure to LINK while reinforcing its position at the intersection of real asset investing and blockchain infrastructure.

"Coinbase Prime delivers the secure, integrated infrastructure institutions need to scale their digital asset treasury strategies," said Ryan Ballantyne, Head of Corporate Client Strategy, Coinbase. "We're proud to support Caliber's expansion into crypto, leveraging our industry-leading trading and custody solutions. Coinbase empowers institutions to scale crypto strategies with the security and compliance they demand."
