December 16, 2025 12:30 PM EST

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz., Dec. 16, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Caliber (Nasdaq: CWD), a diversified real estate and digital asset management platform, today announced it has selected StoneX as an additional institutional platform for trading and custody in support of Caliber's Digital Asset Treasury (DAT) Strategy. StoneX, through its Prime offering, is providing Caliber with access to deep liquidity and institutional-grade custody, using the same infrastructure trusted by some of the world's largest financial institutions.

"We are excited to be adding StoneX as a partner to support our digital asset treasury infrastructure," said Chris Loeffler, Chief Executive Officer of Caliber, "Our goal is to present differentiated exposure to LINK through Caliber's stock and StoneX brings Caliber an edge in LINK accumulation and trading, powered by its institutional services group."

Brian Mulcahy, CEO of StoneX Digital, commented: "We're proud to support Caliber with their DAT strategy. StoneX Digital is dedicated to servicing our customers' requirements, and much like the entirety of our business, this is a natural extension of the global financial services capabilities of StoneX Group."

Caliber is the first Nasdaq-listed company to publicly adopt a treasury reserve policy centered on Chainlink's Token, LINK. The Company's strategy calls for disciplined accumulation of LINK over time, long-term holding and yield generation. By doing so, Caliber provides its shareholders with transparent, mark-to-market exposure to LINK while reinforcing its position at the intersection of real asset investing and blockchain infrastructure.
